

NATIONAL Examiner GIVEAWAY

ACTION IS ON TAP THIS WEEK

FROM high-octane adventures to the birth of rock 'n' roll, we have a wide variety of DVDs and books to entertain you. We have five FREE copies of each title on this page. For a chance to win, fill out the coupon below. Mark your top 4 choices from all the items in The EXAMINER and mail to P.O. Box 3065.

FUNNYMAN Seth Rogen stars as a self-made superhero in The Green Hornet, co-starring Cameron Diaz and Christoph Waltz. This slick classic adventure of the masked vigilante and his sidekick Kato is packed with humor and explosive action. It's a blast of super fun and this year's No.1 action comedy. The regular DVD is $28.95 from Sony.

SURFERS raise the bar to a whole new level in Highwater. Experience jaw-dropping big-wave surfing as champions on monster waves. This $27.97 image release provides plenty of thrills and spills.

STEP into the line of fire with Sniper: Reloaded. Billy Zane reprises his role as an expert marksman on a deadly mission to stop a mysterious sniper targeting innocent civilians. This explosive action drama is $24.96 from Sony.

BESTSELLING author Susan Wittig Albert is back to entertain readers with Mourning Gloria, the 19th book in her China Bayles mystery series. Now, in addition to running her herb shop, China must stop an arsonist and find her friend who's disappeared. This clever whodunit is $25.95 from Berkley.

"COUSIN BRUCIE" Morrow is one of the greatest rock jocks of all time. Now he takes us behind the scenes with Rock & Roll... And The Beat Goes On, a rare eyewitness account of the music we grew up with from someone who helped give it life. This $17.95 paperback from Imagine Publishing will rock your world.
